Sweet festival fun for whole family

By MARGARET TRUAN
Executive Director

Intermountain Healthcare Foundation

February is known as the month of romance and chocolate treats, which fits in perfectly with Mayers Intermountain Healthcare Foundation's Chocolate Festival.

This is an annual event held every February just before Valentine's Day.

The Chocolate Festival is a fun-filled evening for the whole family. The evening events include tasting of incredible chocolate desserts and candies, judging contests, awards and prizes, auctioning off chocolate desserts, and special activities for the children.

This year's festival will be held Sunday, beginning at 5 p.m., at Ingram Hall and the Inter-Mountain Fairgrounds in McArthur.

To compliment the dessert tasting, Mt. Burney Coffee Company will be donating coffee at no charge for all our chocolate tasters. Northeastern Dairy will also be donating individual cartons of milk for those in attendance.

The children can participate in many activities early in the evening like playing chocolate bingo, under the direction of Jeni Pevehouse.

Also, later in the evening, the children will be treated with a video to watch, complete with popcorn and juice.

The auctioneer this year will be Jerry McDaniel, who will be assisted by McArthur FFA members.

The auction proves to be the highlight of the evening with the bidding of desserts and flower arrangements.

Steve Harris of Burney was one of those whose quick action led to the arrest of Michael Devlyn Poulin who sabotaged a 230,000-volt transmission tower north of Anderson.

Burney man led to capture of 'environmental terrorist'

BY MEG FOX

An "environmental terrorist" is in federal prison through the efforts of a Burney man, whose quick-wittedness may also have averted a major power outage and the deaths of several innocent drivers traveling on I-5.

Steve Harris, of Burney, and two work partners made national news in October 2003, though they were never named, when they spotted a man crouching by a federal 230,000-volt transmission tower, just off Interstate 5, north of Anderson.

It didn't look right to Harris and it wasn't. The man appeared to be removing bolts from the legs to topple the tower and he was.

The man was Michael Devlyn Poulin, 62, a political activist from Spokane, Wash., and the FBI had already been looking for someone matching his description who had been removing bolts from the legs of high-voltage power line towers in Oregon and California.

Harris is a high-voltage electrician and supervisor for Sierra-Pacific Industries in Anderson and he was working that day with former Burney resident Ray Congdon and Congdon's assistant, Milford Haley, both contractors from Utah.

The three men were returning to S-P headquarters in Anderson Oct. 23 after doing upgrades on automated weather equipment that S-P is developing on top of a nearby mountain.

"As we were driving by, I happened to notice a Toyota pickup, with a Honda 90 motorcycle tied on the back, parked by the 230,000-volt line. I looked over and here was this man, hunched over by the leg of the tower," said Harris.

Harris turned his vehicle around to get a better look and saw that the man "was wearing a vest and a hard hat and had a wrench at the bottom of the tower where he was taking the bolts out."

Harris called 911 and Congdon grabbed a digital camera off the dashboard and starting shooting

Good water year - so far

Snow surveys at Thousand Lake Wilderness Thursday show better than average snow depths and water content equal to 10 years averages.

The U.S. Forest Service Hat Creek Ranger District in Fall River Mills compiles this information for the state and is used primarily for stream flow forecasting.

Snow depth measured 73 inches, compared to a 10-year average of 67 inches. Last year's measurement was 61 inches. The all-time recorded depth was 142.9 inches in 1952. The lowest recorded was 7.5 inches in 1963.

Water content Thursday measured 28 inches (38% density). The 10-year average is 25.2 inches (38% density). Last year measured 29 inches (48% density).

In 1952 the water content was 57.4 inches (40% density). In 1963 the water content was 3.2 inches (43% density).

Thursday's measurements were similar to those recorded in 1966, 1968, 1970, 1978, 1998 and 2000.

Information based on historical data dates back to 1947.

The Thousand Lakes Wilderness snow course is measured four times from January to April.

Warning about PG&E scam

Pacific Gas and Electric Company is warning its customers to beware of calls from anyone claiming to be from PG&E and asking for credit card information over the telephone.

The company has received scattered reports from customers who have indicated that they received a call from someone claiming to be from OPG&E and threatening to shut off their service if the person did not provide a credit card number to pay the bill.

"Often during the holidays people may go to desperate measures to get money by preying upon innocent people to try to make a quick buck," said Lisa Randle, spokesperson for PG&E.

"But recently there have been reports of scam calls just within the last few weeks in other parts of our service area," she said.

"Additionally, area residents are reminded that GPG&E does not accept credit card payments and under no circumstances would we contact a customer and request such information."

Anyone who has received such a call and provided credit card information to the caller is urged to report it immediately to the credit card company and the sheriff's department.

For more information, telephone PG&E customer service representatives at 800-PGE-5000.

In this case, Luntley stopped him at 9:40 p.m. Sept. 5 at Main and Shasta Streets in Burney.

The judge dismissed a third case for driving at an unsafe speed on Shasta View Drive in Redding on July 25.

Phipps was placed on 36 months probation and to pay fees and fines totaling $2,842 for both cases.

He was ordered to complete the three-month First Offender program, to not possess and to submit to the warrantless search for illicit drugs and paraphernalia. He is to report back to the Burney court on Jan. 20, 2006.

OBITUARIES

ALICE CRUM

Alice Adeline Crum Homemaker, 83

On January 28, 2004, after suffering a severe stroke, Alice Adaline Crum left this world for her eternal Heavenly home.

The loved ones left behind are certain she now has no more suffering or pain and is enjoying a "glorified, Heavenly body."

Alice was born on May 28, 1920 in Lookout, Modoc County, in northeastern California.

Her parents, Howard and Jessie Wendt, lived in Widow Valley, a beautiful valley near Lookout.

Theirs was a secluded lifestyle in the little valley, surrounded by mountains and pine trees.

The family grew to include nine children.

Death robbed them of their mother, Jossie, when the youngest, Alden, was only fifteen months old.

This untimely, sad event thrust a seventeen-year old Alice into the role of mothering the younger children.

Surviving siblings of that family are, sister Ersel Crum of McArthur and brother Alden Wendt of Stanwood, Washington.

Orville Crum of neighboring Fall River Valley became interested in Alice and he traveled muddy, bumpy roads to court her.

Country-dances became a favorite date.

They were married November 9, 1940 and began life together on the Crum Ranch near McArthur.

Orville and his brothers developed a cattle and hay ranch, feed lot, slaughter house and meat market.

Alice was involved in cooking for large crews of ranch hands.

Muriel and Bill were born while they were on the Crum Ranch.

Muriel Crum Eades now lives in Palo Cedro and Bill follows in his father's footsteps raising hay and cattle on the ranch at Pitville.

In 1958 Orville moved his family to a run-down ranch near Pitville.

With hard work and determination they built a thriving cattle ranch and home surrounded by rolling, lush alfalfa fields.

Alice was very involved in riding, working with cattle, farming, and again cooking for hungry ranch hands.

Orville believed a man couldn't do a good days work without three big meals.

Orville's death at the end of 1999 left Alice living independently at her home on the ranch until her recent stroke.

Alice loved her family, especially grandkids and great-grandkids.

She leaves behind 11 adoring grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Theirs are memories of a "perfect grandmother," baking birthday cakes, cookies, taking time for picnics, hiking, camping, and fishing trips to Pine Creek.

Another great love in her life was her flower garden and the birds that lived there.

We feel assured that Grandma Alice is now working in the most beautiful garden imaginable, and in the background are wonderful bird sounds, joining a Heavenly choir.

Memorial donations may be made to the Fall River Mills Historical Society for restoration of the Round Barn- PO Box 397, Fall River Mills.

Memorial Services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Friday February 6 at George Ingram Hall in McArthur.

A potluck lunch will follow.

Terrorist caught thanks to Burney man photos — of the gray Toyota pickup, its Washington state license plate, and the gray-bearded Poulin.

"The guy saw us and started to run. He took off in his truck. He ran the stop sign at Riverside Avenue and darn near caused a wreck and then headed southbound on I-5," said Harris, who pursued the suspect while describing the vehicle to Anderson Police dispatch.

Unfortunately, Harris's diligent detective work was followed by a comedy of errors.

"We were almost to Cottonwood and the CHP told me they had it under control and to stop my pursuit and return to the tower site," said Harris.

But due to miscommunication, the CHP had not been notified and Poulin got away.

Back at the tower, Harris and his co-workers learned that Poulin had removed all of the bolts anchoring three tower legs and had been starting on the fourth leg when Harris spotted him.

"The towers are designed so that their weight holds them up — until you get a good wind or ice storm. It's an enviro-terrorist trick. The tower falls and causes a big power outage and the guys that did it are miles and miles away laughing," said Harris.

Poulin was attempting to sabotage a tower owned by three Western Area Power Administration.

The tower is part of a 17,000-mile network of transmission wires serving 15 states, according to an Oct. 29 report on WorldNetDaily.com.

"It connects Shasta Dam to the California grid. It's a major, major power line," said Harris.

More than a power outage, Harris said he was worried about a downed line of that magnitude on the Interstate. "You get a power line like that coming across I-5. It could hurt someone real bad," he said.

The Anderson Police Department told Harris it was "just vandalism," and he said he could not persuade them that it was more likely an act of terrorism.

"I decided to give PG&E a call," he said.

Harris contacted the PG&E's Round Mountain dispatch.

"The dispatcher came unglued," said Harris.

"He told me they had been warned (about this activity) and had been on a state of alert. The dispatcher asked to talk to the officer who had taken the vandalism report, but he was gone."

Towers in Sacramento and in Klamath Falls, Madras, and McNary, Ore. had reportedly been tampered with in October, prior to the Anderson event.

According to the Sacramento Bee, a total of 10 towers in Oregon, Washington, and California had been tampered with since Oct. 20.

Harris said he knows California Highway Patrol Lt. Cary McGagin, the former commander of the Burney post, and decided to give him a call.

"In about 30 minutes we had every law enforcement officer on this, the FBI, the CHP bosses, the police and PG&E had Homeland Security on the line," said Harris.

Thanks to Harris and Congdon's efforts, law enforcement ran the license plate and identified Poulin, who was also suspected of tampering with a transmission tower in Klamath Falls.

"He was an old hippy weirdo in his 60's who was driving his own pick-up to do this," said Harris.

Two weeks later, Poulin turned himself in and pled guilty in U.S. District Court in Sacramento, where the photos Harris and Congdon had taken were used as evidence.

Harris said Poulin, who has terminal cancer, was sentenced to three to 25-years in prison. He reportedly admitted he had unbolted several other towers in Oregon to California, and, according to the Sacramento bee, said that his actions demonstrated America's vulnerability.

He'd been in prison before, Harris said.

In 1971 he was sentenced to life fat Folsom Prison for mailing a letter bomb to his girlfriend's father in San Mateo County.

"The guy was maimed and blinded and they released Poulin after (eight) years because he was a model prisoner," said Harris in disgust.

According to an Oct. 24 article in the Sacramento Bee, Poulin "later lived in the East Bay Area, where he was active in Palestinian issues, before he and his wife moved to Spokane, Wash., to be closer to their grandchildren, said Mary Moore, a friend, fellow activist, and editor of the online Sonoma County Free Press"

Poulin reportedly wrote for the Sonoma County Free Press occasionally.

Harris said there was talk that Poulin was involved with the Earth Liberation Front (ELF), though he is named on the organization's Website.

Recently Harris received a package in the mail. It had no postage, but was stamped by the FBI, Inside was a plaque recognizing Harris and a letter of appreciation signed by FBI Director Robert Mueller.

Harris and the two other men who helped are also sharing a $3,000 reward put up by the Western Area Power Administration through the company's Crime Watch program.

They have not yet seen any of the $25,000 reward posted by the Bonneville Power Administration, though were advised it could take a year to post the check.

Like a lot of heroes, Harris said, "I did exactly what anyone else would have done."

Maybe.

"Hey, we found a loose nut loosening nuts and we tried to catch him," Harris said.

Heater leaves warm feelings

Editor:
Everyone from Intermountain Service for the Handicapped would like to give special thanks to Raymond and Dorothy Herell and Century 21 Big Pine Realty for donating $3,000.00 for a new heating system for our Thrift Store and Activity Center.
We would also like to thank Coleen Courtwright and Ted and Nancy Miller/US Bank for their $100.00 donation each, and Bert Dale for his $20.00 donation.
The new heating system will distribute the heat more evenly through our building because it will be ducted, not to mention hundreds of dollars because it will be more efficient and we wont have to use electric heaters in our sorting room.
Our old furnace only hated the Store area, which left our back rooms very cold.
You all have a special place in our hearts, we'll always be grateful!

55th Sierra Cascade Logging Conference (SCLS) is being held in Reno on February 12-14, 2004.
It will be a great opportunity to learn about "Healthy Forests and Fire Safe Communities" with our expert panels and speakers we have lined up.
The conference is set to receive the public on any day they have time to stop in, from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, 9:00 to 5:00 on Friday and 9:00 to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday.

For some highlights, we have Logging Competition Contestant and Champion, along with University team competitors from UNR, Cal-Poly, and CSU-Humbolt.
This is a very interesting and entertaining display for the family or anyone to see with bleachers for onlookers.
We have a great program for our opening "Loggers' Breakfast" on Thursday with our Keynote Speaker, Tom Bonnicksen, advisor to President Bush on wildfires, speaking about the disastrous threat to Tahoe and the Sierra Nevadas.
We have two panels of experts set for Thursday and Friday to address active forest management, fire risk and the Lake Arrowhead disaster and a joint panel with the Mule Deer Foundation addressing "Wildlife Habitat and Healthy Forests."
"Wild Things" is a live wildlife show that will be seen at five separate showings over the three days.
The adults and kids get a tremendous thrill seeing up close a cougar or bald eagle, raccoon, and other interesting wild creatures.
We have sold out display space for logging and heavy equipment, with lots of trucks, trailers, loaders, delimbers, and other big machines.
Bring the children down for a leisurely afternoon and let them sit in the driver's seat of one of these awesome machines.
You will be able to browse through displays laid out by about sixty vendors and get free gifts, hats, pens and other trinkets.
Everyone registering for the SCLC gets a discount to enter the Mule Deer Foundation Convention and Exhibits held on Friday through Sunday at the Convention Center.

Raider boys lose in overtime to Weed; Burney girls lose 'best game of season'

BY MEG FOX

The Burney Raiders could not bag two teams of cats in basketball last week.

The boys' varsity basketball team lost to the Etna Lions in their den Saturday, 80-65, while the Burney girls' varsity was similarly pummeled, 81-26.

Against the Weed Cougars on Friday night in Burney, the Raider boys lost 62-56 in overtime.

The girls' varsity had a closer catfight, but also lost to the Cougars, 58-52.

Both teams are 2-5 in the Shasta Cascade League. The boys are in sixth place and the girls are in fifth.

Sophomores Robbie Fulk and Kayla Stover are leading the Burney varsity girls in scoring.

Fulk has 232 points for the season with 42 steals. Stover has scored 149 points and is third in the League with 199 rebounds.

Senior Rocksann Barba is the SCL leader in assists with 73, and has scored 127 points for Burney so far. Aimee Ayers leads her team with 12 blocks and has scored 79 points.

(Stats for the varsity boys are not up to date, though Kyle Moody was the scoring leader, followed by Ryan Huffman, Josh Schechla and Luke Schechla.)

Boys vs Cougars, Lions

The Raider boys' game against Weed Cougars provided the most excitement for the week.

At the end of the first quarter, the teams were tied, 9-9, and then Weed took over the ball in the second quarter and scored 23 points.

Burney took it back by scoring 23 points at the end of the fourth to tie at 53-53. But Weed scored 9 points in overtime and when the buzzer rang the score was 61-56.

Kyle Moody scored 21 points. Kevin Wrigley scored 15, and Ryan Huffman scored 12.

The varsity Raiders lost to Etna, 80-65. Huffman scored 28 points and J.D. Dennis added 10 points to the board.

Girls Varsity

In Etna, the lady Lions pounced immediately and scored 19 points in the first quarter and 25 in the second quarter to set the stage for Etna's 81-26 win over the Raider girls' varsity team.

"There's not much to say except that Etna is an excellent team," said coach Susan Ayers, noting that with Etna's talent this season the team should be competing in Division 1 or 2.

"They are tall, quick, and don't miss many shots."

One of Etna's players, 6-foot-tall Jaclyn Rainville, a junior, leads the SCL in scoring, rebounds, and steals, and is second in the League in assists.

Another player, Leslie Hurlimann leads the League in 3-point field goals with 28 recorded so far this season and four in Friday's game with Fall River.

Ayers said she was proud that the Raiders held her to only one 3-point shot.

"When you know you are playing a team of that caliber, you have to change your view of what you can do to make a positive experience out of loss like we had and we did that by reaching that goal.

"I was proud that the girls didn't get frustrated and never gave up during the entire game."

The Raiders scored six of their nine free throw attempts.

Raider Kyle Moody goes up for 2 points in Friday game Burney lost to Weed in overtime.

Kayla Stover led with 9 points and 10 rebounds.

On Friday night, "we played one of the best games of the season – but it wasn't enough to overcome Weed," said Ayers.

Her daughter, Aimee Ayers, played a "terrific game" scoring 17 points with 13 rebounds, an assist, a steal and 2 blocked shots.

Ayers said she was also pleased with Stover, who contributed 10 points with 17 rebounds.

"Rocksann Barba was excellent in her passing, getting 5 assist. And, of course, I was pleased with the continued excellent performance of Robbie Fulk, who made 20 points. She always comes out and plays hard, even as sick as she was."

Bulldog JV teams beat, lose to Etna

Fall River's junior varsity teams played the challenging Etna Lions in Etna on Friday, with a win for the boys, but a loss for the girls' team.

The Mt. Shasta Bears took both teams down earlier in the week.

In the boys' games, the Bulldogs scored a 57-49 victory over Etna.

"It was a very good game and the team hit the buzz saw when they went in.

"Everyone played well. They played the fundamentals, scored, and we got a W," said coach Scott Gallion.

Shane Robertson and Alex Vigil each scored 13 points; Brady Corr and Brandon Oilar each added 8 points to the board.

The Bulldog boys lost to Mt. Shasta, 65-45. Robertson was the high point scorer with 10 points. Corr and Brent Handa added 7 points apiece.

The Fall River girls' JV team lost to Etna Friday, 47-33, but played an impressive game, scoring 21 points in the first quarter, according to coach Todd Sloat.

Leslie Taylor scored 11 points with 12 rebounds and Caitlin Spalding scored 8 points.

The Bulldogs also lost to Mt. Shasta, 41-32. Taylor was again the high point scorer with 15 points. Kim Hennessey scored 8 points.

Burney JV racks up win over Etna; Rhoses scores 36

Burney's JV boys scored the only Raider victory over Etna Saturday, racking up 79 points to Etna's 56.

Ryan Rhodes never lost sight of the basket and scored 36 points for his team. Grant Moody added 26 and Tyler Watson scored 8 points.

"We scored 41 points in the second half and just progressed right along and did really well. We just took it to them," said coach Wade Jones.

But the boys had trouble taking it to them Friday against Weed and their game didn't get off the ground until the third quarter. By then it was too late and the Cougars won, 71-64.

"We scored 31 points in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to catch up," said Jones.

Moody scored 12 points. Rhodes, Kevin Sutherland and Nate Bartell each scored 10 points.

JV GIRLS

Burney's JV girls had a tough time against Etna and there was chatter on the bench and in the stands that some of the calls – or lack of calls – didn't particularly favor the Raiders.

Three players were fouled out, one player got a technical, another got a technical warning and when co-coach Jason Estes went to the defense of a Burney player who was knocked to the floor, he received a technical, too.

The game was close, but in the end Burney lost, 46-41. Etna had 48 free throws and Burney had 21.

Taylor White led her team, scoring 20 points, with 6 rebounds and 7 steals. Anika Kierce scored 6 points with 5 assists and 7 steals.

Megan Spooner scored 6 points with 3 rebounds, 3 assists, and 3 steals. Jessica Van Laak scored 5 points with 2 rebounds, 2 assists, and 2 steals and Megan Frazier got 6 rebounds.

The girls' JV also lost to Weed, 39-19. White was again the high point scorer with 12 points. Kierce added 3 points to the board.

Double overtime for Bulldog varsity boys

BY MEG FOX

The Bulldogs' varsity boys took their team into double overtime in an exciting game against Etna Friday night, but try as they did, Fall River could not garner the win and lost 82-77.

They also lost two top players, but gained a new man, Adam Kester, who arrived at Fall River High School Monday from Boonville and scored 26 points in the game.

Fall River's John Morris was out with a previously injured shoulder. Nick McFarlin left the game with a sprained ankle.

"We were pretty beat up," said coach Greg Hawkins.

At the end of the first quarter, Blake Connors hit a shot that sent the Lions and Bulldogs into the first overtime.

When that round was coming to a close, Alfred Olvera, who totaled 19 points in the game, scored 5 in a row to put the game into second overtime, said Hawkins.

"It was very exciting and just too bad that we didn't win."

In Fall River's game against Mt. Shasta, the Bears took the lead early on and never let go to win 45-62 on Jan. 27.

"Mt. Shasta played very well. At the end of the first quarter the score was 26-9, their favor, and we never got close after that."

Alfred Olvera was the leading scorer with 12 points.

F.R. girls defeat Bears in varsity hoop action

BY MEG FOX

The Fall River Bulldogs chomped at the heels of the Mt. Shasta Bears to capture a 50-44 win in varsity girls' basketball play on Jan. 27.

Their game with Etna Friday wasn't as pretty and the lady Bulldogs lost to the Lions, 68-41. With a 5-2 standing, the Fall River girls' team is third in League Against Mt. Shasta, the lady Bulldogs were down 10 points in the first quarter and scored fewer in the second, but by the end of the third quarter were on their feet again to tie up with the Bears, 33 to 33, and continued their playing streak into the fourth quarter to take the win.

Fall River's Jessica Caldwell led her team in scoring with 22 points, shooting 9 from the field, and getting 6 rebounds.

Abby Salters scored 15 points, with two 2-point field goals and one 3-pointer, plus 7 rebounds, 8 steals, and 3 assists.

Sophomore Shawna Truan scored four 2-point field goals for 8 points and had 4 steals.

Etna, first in SCL with 15-5 standing, is a tough team to beat and the Lions took off running Friday, scoring 25 points in the first quarter, more than double Fall River's early score.

Teams in the SCL face two tough players at Etna in 6-foot-tall Jaclyn Rainville, a junior, and Leslie Hurlimann, a 5' 10"-tall senior.

Rainville, who scored 23 points in the game with Fall River, leads the SCL in scoring (292 pts.), rebounds (225), blocks (91) and steals (54). She is second in the League in assists, with 67 on record.

Hurlimann leads the League in 3-point field goals with 28 recorded so far this season and four in her game with Fall River.

The Fall River Girls' varsity team has a 5-2 League standing and is in third place.

Fall River's Abby Salters is third in League in scoring 3-point field goals (15), third in assists (65), and second in league with steals (53).

The History-Making Speech and Rally...

The March on Washington

The Mini Page celebrates African-American History Month with a story about a huge demonstration and a great speech that was delivered on a hot summer day, Aug. 28, 1963. The speech was by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a leader in the struggle for equal rights for black citizens. To find out more about this man and his speech, The Mini Page talked with Dr. Clayborne Carson. We asked him to tell us more about Dr. King and the March for Jobs and Freedom. We have quoted Dr. Carson.

About segregation “Segregation was a system of holding people down by preventing them from doing things other Americans could ... such as going to whatever public restaurants, bathrooms, drinking fountains or libraries they wished. Segregation was a way of keeping white people and black people separate ... but not equal, because white people were allowed to do things that black people were not allowed to do.”

Dr. Clayborne Carson is a professor of history at Stanford University. Coretta Scott King, the wife of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., asked Dr. Carson to edit and publish the papers, or writings, of her husband. He is the director of the project.

Site to see: The Martin Luther King Jr. Papers Project at: www.stanford.edu/group/King

The 250,000 marchers were mostly blacks but there were also many whites. They came by car, train, plane and bus. There were marchers from every state. By reading the signs, you can tell why they were demonstrating. Dr. King is on the first row, left.

Dr. King and others who spoke that day delivered their speeches from the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. Monuments to Washington and Jefferson are nearby.

About the march “I saw more black people in one day than I had ever seen. What was so wonderful was that everyone was so calm. They were there with a very positive and friendly spirit.”

About Dr. King

“Dr. King dedicated his life to make life better for other people. Even though he was a well-educated person, he could speak in a way that would easily be understood. Those without much education would feel comfortable. He made complicated things seem simple.”

About the speech “Dr. King had given parts of the speech before. He had written out his speech, but got to the end and then began to speak without notes. He said many things he had said before — but never quite as well before. He always spoke his best when inspired by the crowds. “The speech and the March on Washington showed that there was a great deal of support for the end of segregation. Congress passed the Civil Rights Act of 1964 the next year.”

Go dot to dot and color this famous African-American leader.

Gus Goodsport's Report

Supersport: Tracy McGrady

Height: 6-8 Birthdate: 5-24-79 Weight: 210

Welcome to the “Magic Show,” starring Tracy McGrady. No, the Orlando Magic guard doesn't pull rabbits out of his hat. But he does do amazing feats on the basketball court. Poof! He puts the ball in the basket, makes clever passes and snatches rebounds.

McGrady is one of pro basketball's superstars. He led the NBA in scoring last year, with an average of 32.1 points per game. He also excels as a defender, rebounder and passer.

McGrady was so good as a prep player at Mount Zion Christian Academy that he went straight from high school to the NBA Toronto Raptors seven years ago.

But Tracy is more than a superb athlete. He was voted by The Sporting News as one of the “Good Guys in Sports” for outstanding character and admirable civic responsibility. It's fitting that he wears No. 1 on his jersey.

Meet Eddie Murphy

In high school, Eddie Murphy's talent for making people laugh won him the title of “Most Popular.” At the age of 42, he's still making lots of people laugh as a popular comedian and actor.

Eddie grew up in Brooklyn, N.Y. By age 15, he was writing and performing his own comedy routines at youth centers and in his high school auditorium. His big break came when he was asked to join the cast of “Saturday Night Live” at the age of 19.

Two years later, Eddie made his first movie. If you haven't seen his acting in a movie, you may have heard his voice. Eddie provided the voice for Mushu the Dragon in “Mulan” and the Donkey in “Shrek.” Last year, Eddie starred in “The Haunted Mansion.” This year he will be back as the Donkey in “Shrek 2.”

Eddie is married and has five children.

The “I Have a Dream” Speech

“I say to you today, my friends, so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

“I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: ‘We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.’

“I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, sons of former slaves and sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood ...

“I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skins, but by the content of their character.

“I have a dream today!

“I have a dream that one day down in Alabama ... little black boys and little black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers ...

“This is our hope. This is our faith that I go back to the South with ... With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together ...

knowing that we will be free one day ...

“This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with new meaning, ‘My country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrims' pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring.’

And if America is to be a great nation, this must become true.

“So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire; let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York; let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania; let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado ...

“Let freedom ring from every hill and mole hill of Mississippi. ‘From every mountainside, let freedom ring.’

“And when this happens, and when we allow freedom to ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of that old Negro spiritual, “Free at last! Free at last! “Thank God Almighty, we are free at last.”
